

BERLIN SEMINAR

This activity is reserved for senior students and is held in February, at the Konrad-Adenauer Stiftung in Berlin. American and German students work together to achieve cultural understanding using Berlin as a case study. There is a student registration fee for this activity of 80 Euro.

MODEL U.S. SENATE

MUSS is a unique simulation of the American congressional process in the United States Senate. High school students are assigned to play the roles of senators and other senior members of government. The activity will be held in Raunheim, Germany, in April. Student fees of approximately 350 Euro cover the costs of lodging, meals, and materials.

ACADEMIC GAMES

School academic teams compete against each other in tournament format. The format is patterned after the "College Academic Bowl." Questions reflect a broad high school curriculum to include the subjects of math, science, social studies, history, culture, language arts, and literature. One freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior compose the team. Held annually, the competition will be in March in Hambachtal, Germany.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

FBLA students strive to develop personal and professional skills that can be utilized as career supportive competencies. FBLA chapter members promote civic and personal responsibilities throughout their respective communities. The Spring Leadership Conference is scheduled for March in Garmisch, Germany. The conference will include seminars on public speaking, leadership techniques, organizational skills, education/career guidance and competitions ranging from audio visual presentations to web design. At the event local chapters elect the new State FBLA Officers and prepare for the summer FBLA National Conference. Students attending an FBLA conference benefit from increased exposure to divergent viewpoints, an expanded knowledge base, and a sense of belonging

INTERNATIONAL STUDENT LEADERSHIP INSTITUTE

ISLI is a week-long experiential learning program for developing leadership skills for high-school students, in a setting that allows 75 DoDDS-Europe students to live, work, and learn with 75 students from top schools in 10 European countries. Working in small groups that become the setting for the actual development of their own leadership skills, this eyeopening experience creates knowledge, understanding, and friendships that can last for a lifetime. ISLI is to be held in Oberwesel, Germany in Feb. The cost per student is approximately 215 Euro.

JUNIOR SCIENCE & HUMANITIES SYMPOSIUM

JSHS is for students in grades 7-12 who are interested in the sciences, engineering or mathematics. Students work on original projects at their schools and then compete in the DoDDS-Europe Regional for scholarships and awards. JSHS is held in February in Reidstadt-Godelau, Germany. There is a $100.00 student registration fee for this activity.

JROTC DRILL COMPETITION

Army JROTC Drill Competition Finals will be held at Ansbach (Katterbach Army Airfield) in May. The cadets compete in two general categories of Regulation Drill and Exhibition Drill with judging in 7 different events. Air Force-Navy European Drill Finals will be held in February, at Wiesbaden Army Airfield. There are no registration fees for these events.

NATIONAL HISTORY DAY

Divided into two divisions (grades 6-8 and 9-12) and 7 categories, National History Day promotes the study of citizenship and civics through the construction of history based projects. These projects are entered in District, State, and National contests. District contests are usually held in mid February, with the DoDDS-E (State) contest held later in the spring. The registration fee for this activity is $25.00.

FUTURE EDUCATORS ASSOCIATION

FEA is for students in grades 9-12 who are interested in a career in education. Leading educators from DoDDS-Europe and the United States present teaching and learning strategies in a seminar setting. FEA European Conference will be held in February, at the Edelweiss Lodge in Garmisch, Germany. There will be a registration fee of $300.00 per participant.

MODEL UNITED NATIONS

MUN students practice the art of compromise and diplomacy through realistic United Nations simulated activities. School delegations attend General Assembly and Security Council simulated sessions. MUN sessions are held in the Haag, St. Andrews, Prague, Ramstein, and Bahrain. The Den Haag, Netherlands session will be held in January.
